Prices: All prices in $CDN. Applicable taxes are extra. We reserve the right to change our prices and discounts at any time without notice, and assume no liability for such changes. "Suggested Retail" in this price list refers to our recommended retail price based on what we sell at for retail purposes: manufacturer suggested retail pricing may differ. Dealers may set own independent retail prices as they wish. Quantities are limited: prices apply only to current on-hand inventory.
MAP: Advertised prices of current editions of Culhane manuals by authorized resellers are subject to Minimum Advertised Price (MAP) policy: see <http://www.acceleratedaviation.com/website/artwork/accelerated.MAP.policy.pdf> for details.
Returns: ALL DEALER SALES ARE FINAL: no returns, refunds, exchanges or credits permitted. We may offer sale pricing on selected items, dealer rebates or other promotional programs in our sole discretion.

About Our Firm

We are the exclusive publishers of aviation training manuals authored by Michael J. Culhane, BSc BA JD ATPL, Canada's leading complete line of self study course texts and referenced supplemental exams, for all levels of pilot licences and ratings, from Student Pilot to ATPL, fixed wing and rotary wing. Since the release of our first title in 1988, TENS OF THOUSANDS of Canadian pilots, AME's, flight dispatchers and controllers have used Culhane training manuals to succeed on Transport Canada writtens. We also offer live exam prep seminars, internet courses and online exams to the Canadian aviation training industry. Our goal is to provide quality, all-Canadian, innovative, results oriented aviation training products over multiple training media and to supply aviation flying schools and clubs, colleges and aviation products retailers with our industry leading products and with other useful aviation training products and supplies.

Terms & Conditions: Students completing our online ground schools will require access to current Culhane training manuals (Ground School Course text for appropriate course) so as to reference tables, charts and illustrations referred to in online courses. School will be issued single, universal school access user ID and password that can be used by any number of students at school for duration of subscription period. School sets its own prices for student access. In accordance with CARs, the flying school is responsible for student pilot training records, recommendations for written examinations and overall student supervision towards Transport Canada course curriculum requirements.
